About The College

Founded in 1998, Nagar College is a government-aided undergraduate institution affiliated with the University of Kalyani, situated in the rural landscape of Nagar, Murshidabad, West Bengal. Established with the vision of expanding access to quality higher education in underserved regions, the College has grown steadily in academic scope and social relevance. Currently, it offers UG programs in 13 major subjects across the Arts and Science streams. The institution has been accredited with a B+ grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), reflecting its dedication to academic integrity and institutional quality. Central to the ethos of Nagar College is a student-centric approach to learning. Recognizing that students are not passive recipients of knowledge but active participants in their own intellectual development, the College fosters an academic environment that prioritizes engagement, inclusivity, and personalized attention. The faculty, comprising experienced and motivated educators, employ a range of pedagogical strategies—including interactive lectures, collaborative projects, and ICT-enabled teaching—to stimulate critical thinking and independent inquiry. Infrastructure is carefully developed to support this learner-focused model. Well-maintained laboratories, a growing library with digital access, and co-curricular platforms ensure that students receive holistic academic support. Moreover, the College offers structured mentoring, remedial instruction, and career counselling to cater to diverse learner needs.

Through its commitment to student empowerment, Nagar College continues to serve as a transformative space where education becomes a means of personal growth, social mobility, and meaningful engagement with the wider world.

Message From President Governing Body Nagar College

It is both an honour and a privilege to convey my warmest greetings to all prospective students, parents, and academic stakeholders through the pages of this prospectus. Nagar College, a government-aided institution nestled in the historically resonant and intellectually aspiring district of Murshidabad, continues to stand as a distinguished centre of higher learning and societal advancement.

As President of the Governing Body, I take immense pride in the enduring commitment of this institution to the ideals of inclusive, holistic, and value-based education. The attainment of NAAC B+ accreditation is not merely a mark of recognition, but a testament to the college's unwavering pursuit of academic excellence, infrastructural growth, and continuous institutional refinement.

In an era marked by rapid transformation and global challenges, education must transcend traditional boundaries. At Nagar College, we are devoted to fostering an ecosystem that nurtures intellectual curiosity, civic consciousness, and personal integrity. Under the visionary leadership of Dr. Anilesh Dey, our esteemed Principal, and the tireless dedication of our faculty and administrative staff, the college has made commendable strides in both academic and developmental arenas.

I am confident that Nagar College will continue to illuminate the path of knowledge for generations to come, serving as a beacon of hope and opportunity for countless learners. I warmly invite you to become a part of this evolving legacy—enriched by scholarship, strengthened by values, and driven by the pursuit of excellence.

With sincere best wishes,

Sri Ashis Marjit

President, Governing Body

Message From Principal Nagar College

It is with great honour and a deep sense of responsibility that I extend a warm welcome to you on behalf of Nagar College, a distinguished government-aided institution nestled in the culturally rich and historically significant district of Murshidabad, West Bengal. Our NAAC B+ accreditation is a reflection of our steadfast commitment to academic rigour, ethical values, and community-driven education.

Since its inception, Nagar College has endeavoured to democratize higher education by offering inclusive and equitable learning opportunities to students from varied socio-economic and cultural backgrounds. We provide a broad spectrum of undergraduate programmes across disciplines, underpinned by the expertise and dedication of our accomplished faculty members.

Our vision transcends the mere transmission of knowledge. We seek to inspire intellectual curiosity, nurture ethical consciousness, and foster critical inquiry—hallmarks of a truly holistic education. In recent years, the college has made significant strides in academic enhancement and infrastructural growth, aligning itself with contemporary educational standards while preserving its core values.

The B+ grade awarded by NAAC serves not only as an endorsement of our quality assurance practices but also as an impetus to pursue continuous improvement. Our campus is equipped with modern facilities and a vibrant academic atmosphere, designed to empower students to become conscientious, capable, and compassionate contributors to society.

As you contemplate your academic journey, I invite you to become a part of the Nagar College community—where tradition meets progress, and education is a means to transformation.

With warm regards,

Dr. Anilesh Dey

Message From IQAC Coordinator Nagar College

It gives me great pleasure to extend my warmest greetings to all prospective students, their families, and esteemed academic stakeholders through this edition of the Nagar College prospectus. In my capacity as Coordinator of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), I am entrusted with the vital responsibility of sustaining and enhancing the academic and institutional standards that define the character of this college. The IQAC serves as a cornerstone of our pursuit of continuous improvement—promoting innovation, accountability, and a culture of excellence across all domains of academic and administrative functioning.

At Nagar College, quality is not a destination but an ethos—woven into the fabric of curriculum design, pedagogical practice, student engagement, and governance. Our NAAC B+ accreditation stands as a formal affirmation of our sustained efforts to provide an inclusive, equitable, and academically rigorous environment. The IQAC is actively involved in the dissemination of best practices, the implementation of feedback systems, and the professional development of faculty members. These endeavours collectively strengthen the institutional framework, ensuring that our students are not only informed, but also inspired—capable of critical thought, guided by ethical values, and prepared to make meaningful contributions to society.

To all those embarking upon their academic journey with us, I extend my sincere best wishes. May your time at Nagar College be intellectually enriching, personally fulfilling, and profoundly transformative.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Sreeja Konar

Message From Teachers' Council Secretary Nagar College

It is with a deep sense of pride and responsibility that I extend my warm greetings to all readers of this prospectus—especially to those aspiring students who are considering Nagar College as the gateway to their academic and personal growth.

As the Secretary of the Teachers' Council, I have the honour of representing a dedicated fraternity of educators who are unwavering in their commitment to fostering intellectual excellence, ethical values, and a spirit of inquiry among students. We remain steadfast in our pursuit of academic distinction while remaining attuned to the evolving landscape of higher education.

Nestled in the historically rich and culturally vibrant district of Murshidabad, Nagar College stands as a beacon of opportunity for students from all walks of life. Our institution's NAAC B+ accreditation reflects not only our adherence to quality benchmarks but also our proactive role in shaping well-rounded, socially responsible graduates. The Teachers' Council plays a crucial role in the academic governance of the college—engaging in curriculum development, pedagogical innovation, and institutional quality enhancement. We firmly believe that education is not merely a process of acquiring knowledge, but a transformative journey that builds purpose, resilience, and leadership. To all those embarking on this academic path at Nagar College, I extend my sincere best wishes. May your time here be intellectually fulfilling, personally empowering, and deeply transformative.

With warm regards,

Md. Alfaruque Sk

Message From Head Clerk Nagar College

It is with due respect and professional commitment that I extend my greetings to all prospective students, guardians, and stakeholders engaging with this prospectus of Nagar College.

As the Head Clerk, I am entrusted with overseeing the administrative operations that support and sustain the academic mission of the institution. The smooth and effective execution of all administrative functions—ranging from admissions, student records, financial documentation, and regulatory compliance—is crucial to the college's functioning, and I am privileged to serve in this capacity.

Nagar College, located in the historically and educationally significant district of Murshidabad, has always prioritised efficiency, transparency, and accountability in its administrative practices. The office staff remains fully committed to providing timely assistance, maintaining institutional discipline, and ensuring procedural clarity for all students, faculty, and visitors.

The achievement of NAAC B+ accreditation is a reflection not only of academic excellence but also of the operational integrity and administrative diligence that characterise this institution. Our office continuously works in coordination with the Principal, teaching faculty, and various committees to ensure that the academic environment remains well-supported and student-centric.

I extend my best wishes to all students joining our institution. May your experience at Nagar College be marked by academic growth and administrative support of the highest standard.

With regards,

Md Maidul Hossain

Department of Sanskrit

Name of the Department: Sanskrit

HOD's Message:

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to the Department of Sanskrit at Nagar college. Sanskrit the mother of many Indian languages and the repository of profound philosophical, scientific and literary knowledge, continues to inspire and guide us in modern age. Our department is dedicated to the holistic development of students through the study of classical texts, grammar, poetics and Indian philosophy. We aim not only to impart linguistic and literary proficiency but also to cultivate ethical values and cultural awareness among students. Through seminars, workshops and academic engagement, we encourage learners to explore the richness of Sanskrit literature and its relevance in contemporary times. With a team of committed faculty members and enthusiastic students the department of Sanskrit continues to grow academic excellence. I invite all students to join us in this intellectual journey that bridges the ancient with the modern and the traditional with the contemporary. Let us together uphold the spirit of “सा विद्या या विमुक्तयाम्”

Shantanu Das
HOD

Mathematics Department

Year of Introduce: 1998 (UG, General) & 2006 (UG, Honours)

HOD’s Message:

Dear students, colleagues, and visitors,

It’s a real pleasure to welcome you to the Department of Mathematics, Nagar College. Whether you’re just beginning your journey with us or have been part of this academic family for some time, I’m glad you’re here. Mathematics, at its core, is more than numbers and formulas—it’s a way of thinking, solving problems, and understanding the world around us. It plays a vital role in almost every field today, from science and technology to economics and social sciences.

In our department, we aim to create an environment where learning is both rigorous and inspiring. Our curriculum blends timeless mathematical ideas with their modern applications, helping students see how theory connects to the real world. I’m proud of our faculty who are not just excellent teachers and researchers, but also mentors who genuinely care about students’ growth. We regularly organize seminars, workshops, and collaborative projects to spark curiosity and expand horizons. Whether you’re studying mathematics as a major or simply exploring its depths, I encourage you to stay curious, think critically, and enjoy the journey. Let’s learn, grow, and make discoveries together.

Warm regards, Joydeep Chakraborty

Department of Bengali

Name of the Department: Bengali

HOD's Message Dr. Sudipta Sau

Head of the Department, Bengali Nagar College, Murshidabad

The Department of Bengali at Nagar College, Murshidabad, was introduced in 1998 with the aim of fostering literary and cultural understanding among students. The Honours programme, now designated as the Major course, was initiated in 2004. Our department is one of the largest in the college, with approximately 600 students enrolled across both Major and Minor courses in all semesters. The department boasts a strong academic team comprising one full-time faculty member and four experienced State Aided College Teachers, each specializing in diverse fields of Bengali literature. We are proud of our enriched library facilities, which offer students access to a wide range of academic resources to support their learning and research. Over the years, the department has consistently produced excellent academic results, reflecting the dedication of both students and faculty. We remain committed to nurturing critical thinking, creativity, and a deep appreciation of Bengali literary heritage among our students.

Department of Arabic

NAGAR COLLEGE

Department of Arabic

The Department of Arabic at Nagar College commenced its General Course in the academic session 2009-2010. Three years later, in response to outstanding demand from local students, the Honours Course was introduced in the session 2013-2014. Students had shown strong interest in studying Arabic as an Honours subject, which led to the launch of the course. Since then, both the General and Honours courses have continuously put forth tremendous efforts to strengthen the department.

Primarily, the department aims to provide students with insights, perspectives, and methods for effectively engaging with texts, as well as understanding the purpose and value of the knowledge gained from them. To support this, the department organizes seminars, student debates, educational tours, and various other activities every year, enriching students' experiences and broadening their understanding of the world.

Year of 2000

HOD's Message: It gives me immense pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all students, faculty members, and visitors to the Department of History. Our department is committed to nurturing a deep and critical understanding of the past, enabling students to explore the complexities of human civilization, culture, and change through time. The study of history is not merely about memorizing dates and events—it is about analyzing patterns, interpreting sources, and understanding the present through the lens of the past. We strive to cultivate historical thinking, promote interdisciplinary research, and encourage debates that challenge conventional narratives. Our dedicated faculty members are engaged in diverse fields of research ranging from ancient civilizations to modern political history, social movements, gender studies, and local/regional histories. We offer a dynamic curriculum that not only builds academic knowledge but also equips students with skills in critical thinking, research methodology, and writing—skills that are invaluable in today's rapidly changing world.

I invite all students to actively participate in the academic and co-curricular activities organized by the department, such as seminars, heritage walks, archival visits, and student research presentations. Together, we aim to build a community of thoughtful, informed, and responsible citizens. Let us continue our journey of learning and discovery with enthusiasm and academic curiosity.

Pic.2.2: Mr. Md. Alfaruque Sk welcoming the students to the session.

Mr. Alfaruque Sk began the session by providing students with a comprehensive overview of the Students' Credit Card Scheme. He emphasised how the scheme offers students the opportunity to secure loans for various educational needs, such as tuition, books, and other academic expenses, at low interest rates. This initiative aims to alleviate financial constraints, allowing students to focus on their studies without worrying about financial burdens. Mr. Alfaruque stressed the importance of leveraging such resources for a smoother academic experience.

Following Mr. Alfaruque's address, Mr. Ananda Mal explained the application process for the Students' Credit Card in detail. He reassured the students that assistance would be available throughout the application process, from filling out forms to addressing any questions they may have. Mr. Mal's guidance was aimed at ensuring students fully understood the steps involved and felt confident about applying for the scheme.

DAY 7: SUMMARISED REPORT ON ANNUAL CULTURAL COMPETITION DAY 1.

The 7th day of the Students' Observation Week featured the Annual Cultural Competition, marking Day 1 with a combination of artistic performances and intellectual discussions. The day's events included a Dance competition and a Debate competition, showcasing the diverse talents of students and fostering both creativity and critical thinking.

Pic.7.1: Banner for the event.

The Dance competition featured three distinct categories, each highlighting different styles and traditions. The first category was Rabindra Nritya. This classical dance, inspired by the works of Rabindranath Tagore, featured performances that combined grace with emotional depth. Dancers expressed Tagore's poetry through fluid movements and expressive gestures, capturing the essence of Bengali culture and spirituality. The second one was the Contemporary Dance which brought a modern twist, with students showcasing dynamic, innovative choreography. Dancers blended elements of hip-hop, jazz, and modern dance, offering high-energy performances that pushed artistic boundaries. The last category was the Folk Dance where performances were vibrant and lively, with students presenting traditional dances from various regions. The use of colourful costumes and rhythmic footwork added a festive atmosphere, celebrating regional cultures and heritage.

It was a vibrant showcase of cultural diversity, with performances that ranged from classical elegance to modern creativity.

DAY 8: SUMMARISED REPORT ON THE ANNUAL CULTURAL COMPETITION DAY 2.

The Students' Observation Week continued on its 8th day, January 10, 2025, with the celebration of the Annual Cultural Competition - Day 2. This day featured two captivating events: Singing and Poetry Recitation, which brought out the artistic flair and creativity of the participants.

Singing Competition

The singing competition was a vibrant blend of different musical genres, offering a platform for students to demonstrate their vocal talents. The participants performed in three distinct categories:

- 1.Rabindra Sangeet: Students presented soulful renditions of songs written by the legendary Rabindranath Tagore. These performances were marked by a deep emotional connection to the lyrics, showcasing both vocal skill and understanding of Tagore's profound artistry.
- 2.Contemporary Songs: In this category, students sang modern and popular songs, bringing in fresh and dynamic energy. Their performances resonated with the younger generation, highlighting their versatility in adapting to modern musical trends.
- 3.Folk Songs: The folk song performances took the audience on a journey through regional traditions, with students performing songs that represented the rich cultural heritage of various regions. These performances were full of vibrant energy, celebrating folk music's role in preserving cultural identity.

Poetry Recitation Competition

The Poetry Recitation competition was another highlight of the day, where students eloquently recited poems in two significant categories:

1.Tagore Poems: This category featured the recitation of Tagore’s famous poems. Students delivered these pieces with sensitivity, capturing the philosophical and emotional essence of Tagore’s words. The recitations reflected the depth and timeless appeal of his literary works.

2.Contemporary Poems: In this category, students recited works by modern poets. The choice of poems varied, addressing contemporary themes such as identity, social issues, and human emotions. The students’ recitations were marked by their ability to convey the relevance and resonance of modern poetry.

Pic.8.4: A student participating in Poetry Competition.

Day 2 of the Annual Cultural Competition showcased a diverse array of performances, reflecting both tradition and modernity in music and poetry. The events not only provided an excellent platform for students to express their artistic abilities but also fostered an appreciation for both classical and contemporary art forms. The successful execution of these events emphasized the cultural vibrancy within the student community and highlighted the importance of creative expression in student life.

DAY 9: SUMMARISED REPORT ON THE BLOOD DONATION CAMP ORGANISED BY THE NSS UNIT, NAGAR COLLEGE.

As part of the Observation on Students' Week, 2025, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Nagar College organized a Blood Donation Camp on the 11th of January, 2025, marking the last day and closing ceremony of the week-long celebration. The event aimed to promote social responsibility among students and staff while contributing to a noble cause. The Blood Donation Camp was a collaborative effort between the NSS Unit and a medical team from Kandi S. D. Hospital. The event was coordinated by Ms. Kajal Limbu Subba, Program Officer of the NSS Unit, along with the dedicated team of the Advisory Committee for NSS.

Pic.9.1: Banner for the event.

Pic.9.2: A local resident registering to donate.

Pic.9.3: NSS team registering the donors' names.

The camp was inaugurated at 11:15 am with an opening speech by Mr. Asish Marjit, President of the Governing Body of Nagar College. His words highlighted the significance of donating blood and the importance of such initiatives in fostering a sense of community. The Principal of Nagar College, Dr. Anilesh Dey, also addressed the gathering, offering his support for the event and encouraging others to participate.

The blood donation process commenced at 11:30 am, following the speeches. The camp saw a total of 23 donors, including students, faculty, staff, alumni, and local residents. Among the 23 donors, 13 were students, including 5 NSS volunteers. Other donors included 4 teaching faculty members, 2 non-teaching staff members, 2 alumni, 1 local resident, and the Principal, Dr. Anilesh Dey, who led by example by donating blood himself.

A dedicated team of 16 NSS volunteers assisted throughout the event, helping with registration, guiding donors, and ensuring smooth coordination with the medical team. The volunteers also helped in distributing refreshments and ensuring the donors' well-being.

Pic.9.4: Picture capturing volunteers and donors in the camp.

Pic.9.5: NSS volunteers donating blood.

To ensure the comfort of the donors and volunteers, a well-planned refreshment package was prepared, which included fruits, eggs, and packaged ORS drinks. This thoughtful gesture helped replenish the energy of the donors and volunteers post-donation.

The event received a strong show of support from the college community, with many students, faculty members, and staff visiting the camp to cheer on and support the donors.

Pic.9.6: A faculty member donating blood.

Pic.9.7: A student donating blood.

The Blood Donation Camp successfully achieved its goal of raising awareness about blood donation while contributing to the blood bank of Kandi S. D. Hospital. The event was a testament to the collective efforts of the NSS Unit, the medical team, the students, and the staff of Nagar College. It demonstrated the strong sense of community within the college and the willingness of individuals to support a noble cause.

Certificates were issued to all the donors by the medical team as a token of appreciation for their valuable contribution. In addition, the NSS Unit of Nagar College presented mementos to the donors to express gratitude and acknowledge their selfless participation in the blood donation camp. This gesture helped to recognize the donors' efforts and encourage future participation in such noble causes.

Pic.9.8: Certificate and memento given to a donor.

Pic.9.9: The Principal of the institute registering to donate blood.

The program concluded around 2 pm, and all 23 donations were completed successfully. The event not only marked the end of the Observation on Students' Week but also left a lasting impact on all participants, reinforcing the importance of social service and contributing to the well-being of the community.
